Praying the Rosary

On Thursday August 17th 2017 three of us met to pray the Luminous mysteries of the rosary at noon at St. Joseph's. 5 years later a few more of us continue to meet and pray each week. We follow the liturgical calendar so that in Advent and Christmas time we pray the Joyful mysteries, the Sorrowful mysteries in Lent and the Glorious mysteries in Eastertide. Please come and join us at Noon on Thursdays at St Joseph's when you can or let us have your prayer intentions.

“THANK YOU FROM SUE”

On 23rd/24th July I completed the 100km Yorkshire Ultra Challenge in 26hrs, 57mins and 5secs. I was the 56th woman to cross the finish line! It was a weekend of mixed weather: humidity, torrential overnight rain, and then very strong winds over the exposed parts of the moors. Waterlogged boots led to some interesting blisters. I loved every minute of it. Thank you to you all for your support, you have helped me raise £1,155. (plus Gift Aid yet to be added).

HAPPY ARE THE PEOPLE THE LORD HAS CHOSEN AS HIS OWN.

ST. MAXIMILIAN KOLBE

Priest & Martyr - August 14th

Raimund Kolbe was born in Russian Poland on 7th January 1894, one of three sons. His parents were poor but also pious and very patriotic, so they joined the Franciscan tertiaries. Maximilian Kolbe joined the Franciscan Order in 1910 and in 1914 the Russians hanged his father as a traitor.

After his Rome studies and ordination, Maximilian Kolbe returned to Poland. A magazine was launched to spread the Immaculata and, such was his devotion to Our Lady, he went begging for money to publish and promote his ideals - the weekly newspaper had a circulation of 45,000.

After the Nazi invasion, Maximilian Kolbe's monastery became a refugee camp for Poles and Jews. On Feb 17, 1941, SS men arrested him - he entered Auschwitz, and was brutally treated. Someone escaped from the camp and for this 10 people had to die. Franz Gajowniczek, a married man with children, was saved when Maximilian Kolbe took his place. The 10 were left to starve in a bunker and Maximilian Kolbe comforted them to the bitter end. He was canonized by Pope John Paul II in 1981.
